

SPACE COAST AREA TRANSIT ADA PARATRANSIT ELIGIBILITY APPEALS PROCESS

Under the Department of Transportation (DOT) Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) regulations 49 C.F.R. Section 37.125(g), transit service providers must “establish an administrative appeal process through which individuals who are denied eligibility can obtain review of the denial.” Space Coast Area Transit's administrative ADA Paratransit eligibility appeals process is intended to give applicants who have been denied eligibility, or who have been deemed conditionally eligible, the opportunity to have their case heard independent of the initial decision maker.

THE RIGHT TO APPEAL IS AS FOLLOWS:

1. Applicants have 60 days from the date of the eligibility determination letter to appeal the decision in writing to the Brevard County ADA Coordinator.
2. Prior to the hearing, the applicant's eligibility status remains unchanged from the original determination made by Space Coast Area Transit.
3. Appeals will be heard independently of Space Coast Area Transit.
4. Applicants will have the right to speak in person on their own behalf and/or have others represent them at appeal proceedings.
5. Applicants will have the right to necessary support, such as an interpreter, if requested in the appeal letter.
6. The determination resulting from the appeal will be made in writing within 30 days and will state the reason(s) for the decision. If a decision is not made within 30 days of the date of appeal, full eligibility will be given until a decision is made.
7. Applicants may reapply for service at any time if there is a change in their functional mobility.

PROCESS FOR ELIGIBILITY APPEALS

Appeals are conducted by the Brevard County ADA Coordinator, who is an advocate for people with disabilities. The applicant may also request an in-person hearing or a telephone hearing. All in person and telephone hearings must be scheduled with the Brevard County ADA Coordinator. The applicant is not required to state the reason for requesting an appeal. All requests for an appeal must be filed in writing. Options include:

- Complete and return the attached Notice of Appeal Form. This form was also included with the denial letter.
- Write a letter notifying the Brevard County ADA Coordinator of applicant's intent to appeal.

Both these options provide an opportunity to be heard and to present information and arguments to why the applicant believes the denial should be reversed. The Notice of Appeal Form or a letter requesting an appeal, along with any additional documentation to be submitted as part of the appeals process, should be sent to the following address:

Brevard County ADA Coordinator
2725 Judge Fran Jamieson Way
Building B Suite 106
Viera, FL 32940
